Summary

The Purpose concepts and Mission-Vision Model have three braided threads: Life Purpose (inner and outer)...; Organizational Purpose…; & the Trust's Purpose. These three are interwoven to make the strong fiber of a new vision movement advancing the human spirit. Because our inner and outer purpose are similarly interwoven they form the "Hero-Heroines Quest" - a path of growth as we expand our capacity to serve manifesting our evolving Mission & Vision. Hopefully, when this site is in its full potential the following "Purpose" pages will also be part of every sub-section so that we can ever be supported in Being the Purpose, Doing the Mission and Having the results of our vision realized. "Living our Vision" is the reminder that it is ever about essence or quality and then quantity or form follows.

Our Cause and Commitment

Hurt men hurt others. Healed men heal others. Mentoring is wisely seen as a core value, the Male Mentality 'Positive Aspirations and Archetypes' provide the context and content for men being the chain of grace, breaking the chain of pain. Happy men help others.

Through Resource Center all will find tools and techniques to support their and other's life purpose, significance, and legacy. It is a platform to provision people for 'building a new dawn'.

Through Life Architecture they will fully transit through - freedom from to freedom to – it is what magnetizes their life to make a difference in the world.

And then through Living Legacy they will be Advancing the Human Spirit. Its exemplary models will guide a new 'generative generation', and boomers are inspired to utilize experience for the greater good.

Men can lead 'quiet lives of resentment and resignation, rarely moving when they see the light but when they feel the heat. Yet their pain is their entre to the Work and in time they become the light upon the hill for others to navigate Life.

As brothers, 'cohearts' - we create this passage from 'crucible to chalice' - 'pain to possibility and in turn potentiality'. This is the journey from causation to creation, from being a problem to becoming a solution.
